

FROM THE DESK OF THE PRESIDENT

BY NANCY SISLOW
BOARD PRESIDENT

In May your POA Board filled the vacant Secretary position which was for less than 24 months. There were several very talented candidates, and the Board selected Ms. Pat Burgoyne to the role. Welcome, Pat! Each of those not appointed was encouraged to run for the vacant Director position. I also need to thank Director Michael Tubbs who served as Interim secretary while the process of appointing someone was carried out. Thank you, Director Tubbs for a job well done!

Additionally, in early June, the Futures 2.0 Committee met to review the status of the vision/strategy that was shared last month. Actions from that meeting included 1. Holding further discussions with the Airport membership regarding options for the Airport property; 2. Recommending to the Board that it develop, for approval at the next Open Board meeting, a proposal for transfer of select amenities to the City to be put to the membership for a vote; 3. Acknowledging that transfer of select amenities to the City in 2025 could reduce the expected 2025 tax burden; 4. Proceeding with the plan to survey the membership using the Election mailing and on-line options to reach the largest number of members.

In a Special Meeting held on June 11, 2025, the Board developed the wording for a proposal to transfer responsibility for selected amenities to the City of Diamondhead. In our effort to accomplish this, we are working through the details for a vote of the members. Since the bylaws were written with before many of the covenants expired, we now must define a quorum and a voting member under the current scenario.

The need for these terminations may slow the plans to right-size the POA, but they need to be worked out so that the Board is taking the most correct action. It would be very unfortunate for all if mistakes lead to extended legal challenges which delay the goal of having an organization that is fiscally sound.

Change is not always easy, and can seem very frightening, confusing and frustrating, but in the end, it is inevitable. I believe good will prevail. This Board will work to assure the best future we can.

Please remember, the annual member meeting that is held each June has been rescheduled to Saturday, August 2nd. An election will be held at that meeting to fill the Director vacancy. Proxy forms and absentee ballots were mailed out at the end of June. Please contact the POA Administration if you have any questions.

I, and all the Members of the Board, thank you for the opportunity to serve the Diamondhead Property Owners Association and the community's great amenities.

Diamondhead Aviation: Good Planning can be Boring

BY PAUL GILBERT

They say aviation is hours of boredom separated by moments of sheer terror.

That may be a bit dramatic, but what we do during those 'hours of boredom' can help us avoid those 'moments of sheer terror'.

Browsing through NTSB accident reports, we see that a strikingly large percentage of accidents are attributed to pilot error. The problem with lumping so many events into the 'pilot error' basket, is that it starts making us feel like accidents are inevitable and hu-

DIAMONDHEAD GARDEN CLUB BY BRIERLEY ACKER

If you missed the garden club flower show in April you missed a good one.

We had 200 botanically named Horticulture entries, 12 designs, AKA flower arrangements, 12 botanical arts displays, and 4 educational exhibits.

We use botanical names because a yellow flower can be called a buttercup in Maine and a Coreopsis here in the south.

They Can look very much the same but different species, so without the botanic name you never know just what you may be getting. Using botanical names are the same wherever you live so using them means you will always get exactly what you want not "Surprise"

Our flower show will be in April again next year, 2026. Put it on your calendar when you get the 2026 one.

Our next and final meeting of the season will be on May 21st with the installation of the new officers for 2025-2027

The club year is from September through May

Have a wonderful and hurricane free Summer.

See you in September.

DID YOU EVER CONSIDER YOU MAY HAVE HISTORY GROWING IN YOUR YARD?

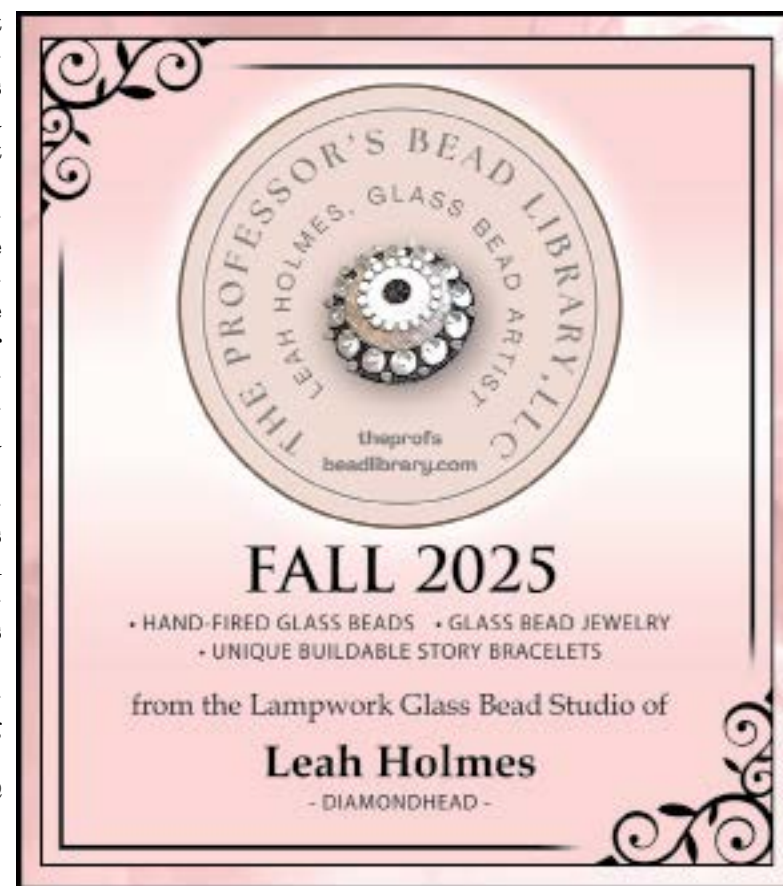

Diamondhead Garden Club is looking for Live Oak

Trees in our community that are 100 years in age or older. Not sure of your tree's age? The tree must have a circumference of 9 ½ feet or greater measured at 4 ½ feet from the ground. A Garden Club volunteer would be happy to assist you in determining that information. We can also help you get your tree registered with Hancock County Historical Society and provide you with a plaque for the tree that denotes the registered name you choose as well it's age. Diamondhead is fortunate to have an abundance of these beautiful trees throughout our community.

Help us honor these historic Live Oaks by getting them registered!

P.E.O. Chapter T, STAR student Hallee Jenkins, was awarded $500.00 to acknowledge her outstanding academic achievements, her school leadership, and her contributions to the community. Hallee graduated third in her class from Pass Christian High School. She plans to attend the University of Mississippi in the fall. Her career goals are to become a speech pathologist or occupational therapist. Pictured from left to right is Chapter T president Mary Craig Murray, Hallee, and STAR Scholarship Chairperson Cheryl Saak. P.E.O. is a women's international philanthropic educational organization that's primary focus is to give women educational opportunities through scholarships, grants, awards, loans and stewardship of Cottey College.

The Diamondhead P.E.O. sisters from Chapters Q, T, and U recently attended the 57th Annual Convention of the Mississippi Chapter of the P.E.O. sisterhood in Madison, MS. Sisters from across the state gathered to recognize chapters for their hard work in raising funds to award deserving women grants, scholarships and loans to assist them in achieving their educational goals.

DIAMONDHEAD WOMENS CLUB BY ROBIN GAINES

Our annual Glitz and Titz fundraiser was a huge success, raising $15,175.00 to benefit the Pink Heart Funds. Numerous items were available for our Silent and Live auctions, and we truly appreciate our many donors who made this a success. There were many wonderfully theme-decorated tables, with participants all decked out with feathers, rhinestones, glitter, you name it! The imagination and enthusiasm of these women were both contagious and electric!!! What a wonderful night!

We strive, through diligence, hard work, creativity and friendship, to continue our efforts to 'Support and Celebrate Women'. The objective of this club is to promote an informed

DIAMONDHEAD GEAUX HIKING CLUB BY SHEILA EDWARDS

Whew! Is it hot? Or is it just me? But, the reported temperatures for our neighbors just a bit farther west... in Louisiana are four-to five degrees warmer, which explains why our coast has historically attracted visitors from those provinces. Sooo... we are the "lucky ones" um-hum...

Our July hiking schedule follows:

Thursday, July 3—Diamondhead Fireworks start at 7:00pm. While technically "not a hike", you may get your steps in walking from wherever you park to our picnic spot on Diamondhead's south side (in the field near Camphouse). Whoever wants to join the "picnic gang" should plan on bringing coolers, chairs and LOTS of bug spray. More details about this event will be discussed at our planning meeting on July 1.

Saturday, July 5—Regularly-scheduled first of the month hike on Fountainebleau Trail, in Ocean Springs. This hike is sponsored by the Jackson County Recreation Department, Mississippi Sandhill Crane Wildlife Refuge, and the Audubon Society and is led by an expert naturalist. The hike meanders through the marsh and is ever-changing. It will be followed by lunch somewhere in or near Ocean Springs. Meet at Twin Lakes a bit before 8:00am. Leave at 8:00am. Hike starts in Ocean mans are just tragically flawed, with little chance for success. This is not the case. With good procedures and proper planning, we all have the ability to avoid those situations. Let's see how we can ensure many hours of enjoyable and accident-free flights.

GEAR-UP ACCIDENTS

After a two-hour flight, a pilot touches the runway with his landing gear securely in the wheel well, damaging both sheet metal and the pilot's ego. Sure, that's an error on the pilot's part, but complacency or poor procedures are usually to blame. During early years of flying a fixed gear Cessna or Piper, how many times did that pilot adhere to good complex aircraft SOPs? The GUMPS check is typically taught in primary training.

Gas on the fullest tank and fuel pump on if required (there is a strong case for not switching tanks just prior to landing, but that's for another article)

Undercarriage is down and indicating down (well? It's welded down. How many still make it a point to check it?)

Mixture set (usually full rich, in anticipation of a go-around, where full power needs lots of fuel)

Props set (typically, high RPM, full forward on the prop control, another setup for a possible go-around)

Seatbelts and shoulder straps fastened

The Cessna 172 pilot may dutifully recite the GUMPS ritual prior to landing, but the U and P are just mentioned without thinking about the actual state of those components, since they never change. Then after moving up to a retractable gear hot rod like a Mooney or Bonanza, have the gear and props been sufficiently worked into that pilot's procedures?

I have my own procedure for checking the landing gear indications a minimum of three times:

- On downwind when lowering the gear
- Just prior to turning from base to final
- And once more on short final.

This is done AFTER the Landing Checklist has been completed, and I like to have the Landing Checklist completed prior to entering the pattern (or prior to passing the Initial Approach Fix on instrument approaches)

Knowing your airplane's pitch-power-airspeed settings helps avoid the gear-up landing by knowing the power settings for a given configuration. If the plane doesn't want to slow down like it usually does, check the gear.

WEIGHT AND BALANCE

There are many errors that happen long before the aircraft is in the air. How many times do you check NOTAMS prior to a flight? How many times do you do a complete weight and balance computation? Remember an aircraft that can take three passengers on a crisp winter day at ten degrees Celsius is completely different from trying to get off that same runway at forty degrees Celsius. A quick look at the chart for a Cessna 172 shows a difference of two hundred feet for a normal take-off and climb rate is about a hundred feet per minute less. Not extremely different performance, but if you're trying to depart a short runway and clear obstacles, a couple hundred feet difference can be critical. And of course, those figures are at the aircraft's max takeoff weight. Did you get actual weights from your passengers? And were they honest?

Yeah, sure she's a hundred ten. She said so...

WEATHER

With today's technology, getting weather updates is much easier than decades ago when we had call Flight Watch on the radio. But all that technology is useless if you aren't taking advantage of it. Many of us have taken off on a long flight, secure in the forecast weather that was already eight hours old and arriving at our destination with completely different weather conditions. Keeping tabs on destination weather allows us to notice any downward trends early enough to have plenty of choices for diversion airports. Landing at your diversion airport with VFR weather is much less stressful than picking up the automated weather at your destination and hearing visibility is down to half a mile and everything within twenty-five miles is the same.

Don't get complacent with weather. Use some of that boring enroute flight time to check your plan and make timely changes if necessary.

With good planning, the goal is to enjoy those hours of boredom without any scary surprises.

Thirty gals playing in the Annual Aloha Tournament

Annual Scotch Doubles John & Cathy Gesell — Susie & Lenny Fontenot — Pattie & Bill Blackwood

then determined by the lowest team score. Our 1st Place Team was composed of Marilyn Galus, Betsy Lyons and Ruthie O'Neill. Coming in 2nd Place were: Kathy Jones, Kim Knight and Margaret Sherwood. Not to be left behind taking 3rd Place were: Therese Mauterer, Pauline Singer and Nancy Sislow.

Pauline had a pretty Chip-In Birdie on Hole #6.

Twenty-four gals came out to play a game of Mixed Bag on Tuesday, May 27th, but, unfortunately, after five holes the game had to be called because of rain and lightning in the area. I guess we will have to try that format at a later date.

Thirty of our members came out to compete in our Annual Aloha Tournament on June 3rd. Congratulations go to Kathy Jones who was our overall Tournament winner and her name will appropriately be engraved on the Aloha Tournament Plaque. Other winners in this event included: Flight 1 - 1st Place, Judy Wright, 2nd Place in a scorecard playoff, Cathy Gesell and 3rd Place, Therese Mauterer. Flight 2 - 1st Place, again in a scorecard playoff, Ruth Holmes, 2nd Place, Ann Nutting and 3rd Place, Anne Payne. Flight 3 - 1st Place, Kathy Jones, 2nd Place, a scorecard playoff, Beryl Laird and 3rd Place, Mary-Ann Stromeyer. Flight 4 - again in a scorecard playoff 1st Place, Shirley Halterman, 2nd Place, Sue Hebert and 3rd Place, Liza Pretzello. During this competition we also give awards in each flight to Low Putts, Longest Drive and Closest to the Pin. When it came to Low Putts, in Flight 1 both

Therese Mauterer and Toni Rossol shared the honors with only 16 putts. In Flight 2, Kim Knight had only 15 putts. Kathy Jones came in with on 13 Putts in Flight 3 while Lisa Pretzello took that honor in Flight 4 with 19 Putts. Longest Drive Winners were: Flight 1 - Therese Mauterer, Flight 2 - Kim Knight, Flight 3 - Kathy Jones, Flight 4 - Shirley Halterman. Playing from the Black Tees, Kathie Esher had the longest drive. As far as Closest-to-Pin honors were concerned in Flight 1 - Nancy Barker (in 2), Flight 2 - Ruth Holmes, Flight 3 - Beryl Laird and Flight 4 - Sue Hebert. Finally, we awarded prizes of golf towels to the gals who had the most shots out of the sand. Each of these gals had to take four shots out of the sand: Cathy Gesell, Monica Jordan and Kim Knight. We followed up the event with a lunch and some non-related golf games in the Club House.

On Tuesday, June 10th seventeen members came out to brave the heat and were delighted to know that even though Mother Nature blessed us with heavy downpours on Monday, the front of the Cardinal only had one hole that was "cart path only". This was our monthly Trophy Day and our winners were: Flight One - 1st Place, Therese Mauterer, 2nd Place, Nancy Barker and 3rd

LOCAL STUDENT CELEBRATED IN THE COLLEGE OF FOREST RESOURCES

BY VENESSA BEESON

STARKVILLE, Miss.—Students in Mississippi State's College of Forest Resources were recently honored with several prestigious awards for academic excellence, research innovation and competitive performance.

Wes Burger, dean of the College of Forest Resources and director of the Forest and Wildlife Research Center, emphasized student excellence across the college's three academic departments: Forestry; Wildlife, Fisheries and Aquaculture; and Sustainable Bioproducts.

"It is an honor to recognize our outstanding students who continue to excel in academics, research and service," Burger said. "Our students are regularly recognized as the best in the nation, proof of their dedication to making an impact on the environment. I also want to congratulate our internationally renowned faculty who advise and mentor our students."

The students were recognized at the CFR student awards banquet in April. In addition to the student awards, students in professional organizations have been recognized for their knowledge and skills. The Mississippi State chapter of the Society of American Foresters brought home several awards from the Southern Forestry Conclave, and the university's chapter of The Wildlife Society placed first in the Wildlife Conclave team competition for the third year in a row. The team also placed first in the Quiz Bowl.
