

While the property associated with The Camphouse and Marina is currently being marketed for sale, The Camphouse business itself remains fully operational and will continue to operate as usual throughout this process, and is not for sale.

The Camphouse's team remains committed to providing the same great food, service, and welcoming atmosphere guests have come to know and enjoy. Guests are encouraged to continue visiting and supporting The Camphouse as normal while business operations continue uninterrupted.

We apologize for any confusion or inconvenience this situation may have caused.

Thank you for your continued support.
